

An evening with Margaret Busby, Angela Barry, Jane Grell, & Zita Holbourne

Tuesday 12 November @ 6.00pm

Ealing Central Library, W5 5JY

Carole Stewart assistant director of arts, libraries and heritage will be hosting an evening with some of the brightest talents in literature with editor Margaret Busby, and fellow contributors Angela Barry, Jane Grell, & Zita Holbourne. They will be discussing the new companion to the classic anthology Daughters of Africa - a major international collection that brings together the work of more than 200 women writers of African descent, celebrating their artistry and showcasing their contributions to modern literature and international culture.

FREE EVENT - Please call Central Library on 020 8825 6503 or sign up at the main desk to book your place.

Online booking at ealinglibs.eventbrite.co.uk

Early booking is recommended as places are limited.